

Chapter 1

Introduction to Diversity in Canada's Families: Variations in Forms, Definitions, and Theories

Multiple Choice Questions

1. On August 23, 2016, about 200 Indigenous people gathered in Toronto to protest the _____, a period in the 1960s and 1970s during which Indigenous children were removed from their families and placed “in the care” of non-Indigenous families.
 - a) double decade revelation
 - b) Sixties Exposé
 - c) Sixties Scoop
 - d) Sixties Sensation
 - e) decade of injustice
2. According to the most recent Canadian Census data available, which of the following is not an increasing trend in Canada?
 - a) Households with a mother, father, and children
 - b) People living alone
 - c) Couples living together without children
 - d) LGBTQI+ families
 - e) Multi-generational families
3. Blended families are also known as _____.
 - a) mixed families.
 - b) stepfamilies.
 - c) reformulated families.
 - d) remodelled families.
 - e) millennial families.
4. Amanda Jette Knox's autobiographical book Love Lives Here explores her relationships with family members who are _____.
 - a) gay.
 - b) divorced.
 - c) transgender.
 - d) aging.
 - e) childless.
5. _____ are not an example of a transnational or multi-local family.
 - a) Visa students